Teacher

“Kru*Chat” is truly devoted to Thai language since she was young . She is especially talented in Thai poem writing. When she was 14, her first poem was published in “SakulThai” ;in the column for an old and famous Thai magazine which the editor was a royal Thai art expert. After that her writings were published occasionally in some other magazines. KruChat was also an editor for the booklet from her faculty and university when she was studying in Chiangmai University.

KruChat has direct experiences with foreigners who lived in Thailand because her family in Thailand has been a host family for 7 exchange students from USA and Australia for 7 years. That is why she understands and is opened to the thinking of the westerners and their way of live.

KruChat was an instructor in the Faculty of Psychology in Chulalongkorn University; one of the best and oldest university in Thailand and Asia

(www.chula.ac.th). She was graduated in Master Degree (M.Sc. organizational psychology) Her last position was as an assistant dean for the academic affair. She is a specialist in organizational psychology and school psychology. When she was working in Thailand, she gave consulting and developed training programs for many organizations; for example, Honda Cars (Thailand), King Pradjadhipok's Institute for the politician and top executives in Thailand.

Today, KruChat is a consultant (Psychology) of the Thai teaching for Thai children in Europe project by Thai Women Network in Europe (TWNE); subsidized by the UNESCO. She is a trainer for the Thai group in EU too such as NFEC, Belgium, and the UNESCO. In the Netherlands, she is one of the initiator of the Thai curriculum of Thai teaching for Thai children in the Netherlands project, subsidized by Thai Royal Embassy in The Netherlands.

* Kru is used to address a TEACHER in Thai, it is often used before the name of the teacher.
